Mr. Jas. N. K. Keola of this town received from his uncle, Chas. K. Kahee, of Hanalei, Kauai, the sad news of the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Kaukokalani Kauihi, at Kalihikahi, Kauai, on the 10th inst., at the advanced age of 82 years, 8 months and 13 days. She was the granddaughter of Kaaokalani, the celebrated warrior of Kaupo, whose tomb, known today as "Ka Pa o Kaaokalani," graces the western ridge of Haleakala crater, her mother being Kalemakalii. Kaukokalani was born Nov. 27, 1823, at Honolulu, the day King Liholiho (Kamehameha II.) and Queen Victoria Kamamalu left on their fateful voyage to England. She leaves a husband and 32 descendants extending to four generations, viz: two children, Mrs. Chas. K. Kahee and Wm. Poonui Dairum, both of Hanalei, Kauai, ten grandchildren, nineteen great grandchildren, the oldest 24 years and the youngest, Adele Keola eight months old, and one great great granddaughter three years old, and about twenty or thirty great grand nieces, nephews and cousins. Many of the latter are on the island of Hawaii.
